A Warm Welcome to Our Visitors

We are delighted to have visitors worship with us, and we pray that you will be blessed through your participation in our services. In the Orthodox Church, the reception of Holy Communion is a mark of membership in the Church. Only those who have been united to the Orthodox Church through Baptism or Chrismation, having prepared themselves through regular CONFESSION, prayer and fasting, are permitted to partake of Holy Communion. We earnestly look forward to the day when unity in the faith, life and worship of all Christians will have been achieved. In the meantime, we encourage visitors to join with us in our prayers and hymns. Literature about the Orthodox faith and this parish can be found in the vestibule. Feel free to ask questions before or after the services and, if you like, sign our guest book and fill out a request card. Please join us for refreshments and fellowship in the Parish Center after Liturgy. We want our visitors who are not Orthodox to receive the blessed bread after the Liturgy and to venerate the Cross if you wish.

To prepare properly for holy communion, we should fast from food and drink from 12:00 at night until reception of communion. Exceptions are made for those who need food and drink to take medication and for other age related difficulties and infirmities. If you have any specific questions please see Fr. Anthony personally.

LITURGICAL TEXTS FOR SUNDAY

June 27, 2010

5th Sunday after Pentecost

Tone 4 / Eothinon 5

Saints of the Day: Sampson the host of strangers; Mary and Joanna the Myrrh-bearers

DIVINE LITURGY

1.) During the Little Entrance: The troparion of the Resurrection in Tone 4

Tone 4

The Resurrection from the Octoechos (Nassar, 162; Kazan Sun. Mat. 18)

Having learned the joyful message of the Resurrection from the angel, the women Disciples cast from them their parental condemnation, and proudly broke the news to the Disciples, saying, Death hath been spoiled. Christ God is risen, granting the world Great Mercy.

2.) The Entrance Hymn(Eisodikon):

O come let us worship and fall down before Christ, O Son of God, who art risen from the dead, save us who sing unto thee: Alleluia

3.) After the Entrance we chant:

Tone 4

The Resurrection from the Octoechos (Nassar, 162; Kazan Sun. Mat. 18)

Having learned the joyful message of the Resurrection from the angel, the women Disciples cast from them their parental condemnation, and proudly broke the news to the Disciples, saying, Death hath been spoiled. Christ God is risen, granting the world Great Mercy.

Troparion of St. John Chrysostom

Grace has shone forth from thy mouth like fire, illuminating the inhabited world. Thou have treasured for the world the treasures of silver-hating and revealed to us the sublimity of humility. Wherefore, O Educator, by thy words, O John the golden-mouthed, intercede with Christ God to save our souls.

طروبارية القديس يوحنا الذهبي الفم (باللحن الثامن)

لقد بزغتِ النعمة من فمك مثل النار، فأثارت المسكونة ووضعت للعالم كنوزَ عَدَمِ حُبِّ الفِضَّةِ، وأوضحت لنا سُمُومَ الإِتِّضاعِ، يا أَيُّهَا الأبُّ المُوَدَّبُ بأقوالِهِ يوحناُ الذهبيُّ الفمُ، فتشفع إلى الكلمةِ المسيحِ الإِلهِ، في خلاصِ نفوسِنا

Tone 4

Kontakion of the Theotokos (Nassar, 125)

O Undisputed intercessor of Christians, the mediatrix unrejected by the Creator, turn not away from the voice of our petitions, though we be sinners. Come to us in time, who cry to thee in faith, with assistance; for thou art good. Hasten to us with intercessions O Theotokos, who dost ever intercede for those who honor thee.

4.) The Trisagion (“Holy God ...”) as usual.

5.) Epistle: Romans 10:1-10 (5th Sunday after Pentecost)

FIFTH SUNDAY

Gradual, Tone IV

O Lord, how manifold are your works! You have created them all in wisdom.

Verse: Bless the Lord, O my soul.

Lesson from the Epistle of Saint Paul to the Romans (c.10, v. 1-10)

Brethren, I desire with all my heart and I pray to God for the salvation of Israel. I can testify that they have a zeal for God, but it is not based on knowledge. Ignoring and disregarding the justification, which comes from God, they are trying to institute a justification of their own. For Christ has superseded the Law, and everyone, who has faith in him, may be justified.

Moses tells us in the Scriptures that every man, who observes the rules prescribed by the Law, will find life through them. But justification, which comes from faith, is much easier. It does not mean that we must ascend into heaven to bring Christ down on earth, or descent into the abyss to bring Christ up from the dead.

It means only that the doctrine of the faith we preach is close to you, on your mouth, and in your mind. You can find salvation, if you acknowledge with your mouth that Jesus is the Lord and if you believe in your mind that God has raised him from the dead. For with our mind we believe in him, and so we are justified. With our mouth we acknowledge him, and so we are saved.

6.) Gospel: Matthew 8:28-34; 9:1 (5th Sunday of Matthew)

Gospel

Matthew 8:28-34; 9:1 (5th Sunday of Matthew)

The Reading of the Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew

At that time: When Jesus came to the other side, to the country of the Gergesenes, two demoniacs met him, coming out of the tombs, so fierce that no one could pass that way. And behold, they cried out, "What have you to do with us, O son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the time?" Now a herd of many swine was feeding at some distance from them. And the demons begged him, "If you cast us out, send us away into the herd of swine." And he said to them, "Go,." So they came out and went into the swine; and behold, the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea, and perished in the waters. The herdsmen fled, and going into the city they told everything, and what had happened to the demoniacs. And behold all the city came out to meet Jesus; and when they saw him, they begged him to leave their neighborhood.

And getting into a boat he crossed over and came to his own city.

7.) The Megalynarion: "It is truly meet ... "

8.) The Koinonikon: "Praise the Lord ... Alleluia."

9.) Post-Communion: "We have seen the true Light ...", as usual. ONCE.

10.) At the Great Dismissal we say, "May Christ our true God, through the intercessions of His all-immaculate and all-blameless holy Mother, ... Through the prayers ".
