

St. John's has been doing it for 30 years...

The women of St. John's Orthodox Church, Fort Wayne are once again making their baklava.

Baklava is known to many as a Mediterranean dessert pastry made with layers of phyllo dough, butter, walnuts and special syrup.

A great treat for any coffee or tea drinker, so . . . give them to your kids teachers, your co-workers, your neighbors, your party hosts and . . . don't forget to keep a box (or two) for yourself. Gift boxes start at $15.

Call Mona Smith at 260.433.3347 to place an order or go to www.stjohnfortwayne.org to download an order form. Share this dessert to create your own tradition and add a little flavor to your holidays.
